WILSON AND SENATE LEADERS IN CLASH

President Asked To Lay Bare Secrets Of Conference

Washington, July 11.—Upon the question of the right of the President to keep locked within his own mind all the secret history of the peace conference has arisen the first clash between the administration and the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

A majority of the committee today demanded all the information in the President's possession about these three subjects:

First—Why was the award of the Shantung Peninsula to Japan made, and is it true that Secretary Lansing, General Bliss and Henry White protested on behalf of the American delegation at Paris against it?

Second—Is it true that Japan entered into a secret treaty with Germany for the partition of Russia, and what were the real relations between Japan and Germany during the war?

Third—Why is Nicaragua permitted to invade Costa Rica, and why was Costa Rica not permitted to sign the peace treaty at Versailles?

Demanded Record of Meetings.
The committee has under the consideration a resolution by Senator Johnson of California, demanding the full stenographic record of the meetings of the big five and the other commissioners at which the League of Nations was considered and agreed upon. This resolution probably will be adopted by the committee tomorrow.

The controversy practically consumed all the time of the committee yesterday. A demonstration of the President's position in the matter, however, was not made.

The position taken by the President is that the committee has no right to inquire into any of the reasons which led to the adoption of specific provisions in the treaty. They contend that such information is confidential and should not be inquired into.

The Republicans contend that the President went to Paris as a delegate from the United States to the peace conference and that the Foreign Relations Committee is not bound to respect any confidence that may exist between him and other parties to the conference. They assert the constitutional right of the committee to inquire into the reasons for any provision in the treaty regarding which they may desire information.

The majority members of the committee emphasized their belief in the soundness of this view by passing the La Follette resolution regarding Costa Rica, the Lodge resolution asking for the truth about the alleged secret treaty between Japan and Germany and the Borah resolution inquiring about the reported protests of three members of the American peace delegation against the Shantung decision.

The vote on the Borah resolution was 9 to 4, and on the Lodge resolution 12 to 3. Senators Hitchcock and Swanson, leaders of the administration fight for the league, voting "no."

Position of Republicans.
Senator Johnson, commented upon the situation in the committee in the following language:

"There is a fundamental difference between the Democrats and the Republicans on the committee. The Democrats take the position that anything which transpired at the peace conference leading up to the adoption of the treaty is confidential and that the President should not be asked to tell about it. The majority of the committee declare that there can be no question of confidence between the President and the Foreign Relations Committee, that the President went to Paris merely as our commissioner and that the committee has the constitutional right to know everything that went on there between him and the other commissioners."

Sensor Knox, former secretary of state, and attorney general, made a similar comment, holding that the committee has the right to ask for full information and that there can be nothing in the possession of the President regarding the peace conference transactions which he is entitled, on any plea of confidence, to withhold from the committee.

A clash, which may assume proportions of magnitude, is looked for when the amended resolution by Senator Lodge on the question of the alleged secret treaty between Japan and Germany comes before the Senate. Senator Lodge intends to call up this resolution tomorrow. As amended by the committee it not only asks for a copy of the treaty, but demands

"any further information concerning any negotiations between Japan and Germany during the progress of the war."

This amendment was put in by Senator McVicker, and adopted by the vote of 15 to 2. Senators who voted for it explained that it is intended by this amendment to open up the question of the real relationship between Japan and Germany.

The President indicated in his talk with Senator Hitchcock that his statement of a few days ago had been misunderstood and that he did not mean that he was willing to sit with the committee at the Capitol and be cross-questioned. On the contrary, the President informed Senator Hitchcock he will be entirely willing to have the committee visit him at the White House, provided twenty-four hour's notice is given.

Reversal of Policy.
This statement by the President was regarded by some of the anti-league Senators as a reversal of policy on the part of the President and caused keen disappointment to several of the Senators who had hoped to be able to ask the President some questions.

Senator Knox indicated that the committee will refuse to go to the White House for the reason that it would be undignified for the committee to go around to the back door of the White House seeking information.

HUNS TO MAKE PLEA
Allies Expect Germany To Ask For Kaiser's Return

Berlin, July 14.—The Tagblatt says it learns the allied and associated powers will not ask Holland to give up former emperor William for trial, but will request Germany to demand from Holland that he be delivered up. Some procedure, the newspaper adds, will be taken in regard to the German statesmen who fled to neutral countries. It says 167 persons will be asked for, including several former commanders and Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg and the former imperial chancellor, Dr. Alfred Zimmermann, ex-foreign minister and Dr. Karl Helfferich, former secretary of interior and vice chancellor.

Vienna Wants Information
Vienna, July 14.—The allied and associated powers, according to Vienna newspapers, will demand the extradition of Count Leopold von Berchthold and Count Czernin, both former Austrian-Hungarian foreign ministers. This is for the purpose of ascertaining to what extent the prolongation of the war was due to their policies.

CHRISTIAN BIBLE SCHOOL ASSOCIATION
The Ohio County Christian Bible School Association will convene here today. An interesting program has been arranged for this session which commences at 9:30 A. M. State worker, Charles Darsie will be present. Mr. Jas. H. Williams is chairman of the association and will preside.

COAST STRIKE IS GROWING SERIOUS
New York, July 15.—Capt. Frank S. Ferris, managing agent for the United States Shipping Board in this city, today characterized as a "serious matter" the strike of Marine workers which has halted much of the coastwise traffic through this port and which the leader of the strikers declare is spreading rapidly. The main points at issue are an eight-hour day and the "closed shop." Both the Shipping board and the private owners have offered material wage increases.

Capt. Ferris estimated that 186 steamships operated by the board have been tied up by the strike. The number of privately owned boats held in port by the strike is not known, but union leaders claim that 400 ships and 15,000 men are involved.

STARVED AND BEATEN IN ARMIES' PRISONS

Brutal Assaults Made By Arrogant Officers—No Provocation

Washington, July 15.—Six former American soldiers testifying today before a special House committee investigating alleged cruelties to military prisoners in France declared that merciless assaults were committed without provocation on the prisoners by arrogant officers in charge of the prison and camps. Only one of the witnesses, all of whom were charged with being absent without leave, was convicted, the others having been acquitted or the charge dismissed.

"The Bastille," "The Stockade," "Prison Farm No. 2," and "Stann's Hotel," also known as the "brig," were the places named by the witnesses as the scene of the alleged cruelties, which were said to have extended over several months in 1918. Some of the officers in charge of the prison camps, it was said, had been convicted by court martials and others were awaiting trial.

Lieut. "Hard Boiled" Smith, one of the prison camp officers, was mentioned frequently, while others named were Lieutenants Mason and Sullivan, and Sergeants Hall, Wolfmeyer and Bush.

"Did they try the general in charge of the camp?" asked Chairman Royal Johnson, who left his seat in Congress to serve with the army abroad.

"Not that anyone heard," responded a witness.

When Lieut. "Hard Boiled" Smith was tried at Tours early this year, a hundred witnesses appeared against him and he was convicted, testified Sidney Kemp, 179 W. 100th and Forty-sixth street, N. Y. City, who was a corporal with Company F, 102d Engineers, 27th Division.

"Fifty witnesses whom I can name will verify everything said here, and tell more, too," asserted Kemp.

Several of the soldiers testified that in addition to being beaten, food in small amounts and of poor quality was supplied and that the bedding was poor, sometimes the mattress being in and under a small tent.

"A prisoner was smiling and an officer says 'Take that smile off, or I will.' A. H. Mendelberg, 1401 East Fayette street, Baltimore, who served with Base Hospital 42 testified.

"The officer hit by rolling the man in the mud," Mendelberg added.

"Did you get that officer's name?" asked Representative Flood, Democrat, Virginia.

"I'm too sorry I did not take his name," answered Mendelberg.

When telling of poor food, Mendelberg said that "if you asked for an extra piece of bread you were flat on your back." Meals, he and others said, consisted of a stew made from canned beef, one slice of bread and part of a cup of coffee. Sometimes only the stew was served.

Charles Goldberg, 320 Central Park West, N. Y. City, a corporal in Company G, 38th Infantry, 3rd Division, said that while at the "brig" he was knocked down by an officer and one of his teeth knocked out when he refused to surrender his money belt. Drawing a blackjack, the officer and Goldberg fought a few minutes but the witness said he was forced to surrender because of the pain he suffered from blows on the arms.

Paul Hogg, Baldwin, N. Y. 318th Field Signal Battalion, said men at the farm were often so angry that they were "glad to eat dirty potato peelings." He said that he dipped a thumb in a bowl barrel so as to get some grease that he would eat "with a relish."

"Instead of giving a command, it was generally given with a club," asserted Hogg, who said he saw at least fifty men beaten.

Alvin Bates, 12 Hawthorne street, Brooklyn, who was with the headquarters troops 2nd Army, said when ever "there was a formation, a man was beaten up every five minutes" at the prison farm. He and Hogg said that a Pole, serving in the American army, was beaten and soon afterward the prisoner cut his throat with a razor.

"Medical inspection was a farce," said Bates, referring to the farm. "You went in one door and were kicked out another."

George L. Pallitto, 215 Walnut st., Newark, N. J., private in Company M, 113th Infantry, 29 Division, testified that he became known as a "nut patient" after he had said that he did not like a nurse.

Pallitto also told of many cruelties in the prisons in France, and admitted that he was absent without leave, for which he was sentenced. The others said similar charges against them resulted when they were trying to reach their units, and they were acquitted or the charge dismissed.

MORAL STANDARDS LOWERED BY WAR

Never Again Look For Victorian Ideal, London Press Is Told

London, July 12.—Considerable space and comment is being taken in the London press regarding the "lowered standard of morals" caused by the war. Recently the Daily Mail printed a symposium of views on the matter:

Mr. Justice Darling said: "In nothing has the war done more harm than in the relaxation on the part of women. This has now reached a point that can be seen in a walk along the street. Women differ by the width of Heaven from what their mothers were."

Mr. Justice Darling's views were widely discussed yesterday. "We must never again expect to have Victorian respectability," said Dr. Mary Scharlieb. "The daughter lives today in a very different world from that in which her mother existed. She is surrounded by far more temptations. The telephone, the motor car, the general speeding up of life, all tend in one direction morally."

"I do not see any immediate prospect of the present, let us call it, lightness passing off. Fundamentally it is the logical outcome of women becoming independent, economically, in a lesser degree, politically. A girl is meeting men more on an equality, and that is telling both ways. But I would not say that she compares badly with her mother."

"It is no use ever expecting a revival of parental control among the masses. The girl will henceforth control herself. I would say further that Mr. Justice Darling has probably uttered his dictum as a result of a walk down the Strand. But let us cease to compare ourselves with the Victorians. We are worse—and better."

"Why" said Lady Mair-Mackenzie, "doesn't Mr. Justice Darling confine his remarks to men? I am tired of men laying down the law for women. The open, unrestrained pleasure quest of to-day is far less harmful morally than the hidden, secret quest of yesterday of the Victorians. You can not judge life by what you see on the surface. In any case, I always look on the views of a Judge as warped."

Away From Fraternity.
"I think" said Mrs. Clara Hutt, "we are getting away from that awful fraternity—false, half the time—by getting used to seeing beauty for beauty's sake—not for any other motive."

"What Mr. Justice Darling says is only too true," was the view expressed at a famous women's association. "The war has entirely changed the former reserved attitude of young women toward the opposite sex. Much of the present laxity is unquestionably due to young girls taking drink. Everyone is far too over-excited nowadays for any decent moral tone to win through. If things go on as they are at present—well, the width of another place than Heaven will separate the women of to-day had as they are as a whole, from the daughters of to-morrow."

3,000,000 DISCHARGED FROM ARMY BY JULY 10
Washington, July 14.—Demobilization is proceeding at a rate of more than 10,000 men per day and the total should pass the 3,000,000 mark on or before July 16. A War Department report today showed 2,847,686 officers and men discharged, with some camps yet to be heard from. Enlistments have begun to show the impetus of the department's advertising campaign. The total is now 75,000, returns from July 5 to 12 having been more than 20,000.

DEATH AND DISASTER IN TORNADO'S WAKE
Valparaiso, Chile, July 15.—Eighty-seven persons are known to have been drowned, and the loss of life may have been much greater, in a hurricane which swept this port Saturday and Sunday.

Fourteen vessels of various sizes were sunk and about a hundred lighters and other small craft were destroyed. The property loss is estimated at $70,000,000.

SENDS COFFIN IN ADVANCE.
Noblesville, Ind., July 12.—A local undertaker has received a coffin which will be held until the death of the Rev. James Hill, a retired minister, living on his farm in the northern part of the county. The Rev. Mr. Hill had the coffin made from a ninety-year old walnut tree, which was planted on his farm by his grandfather.

LINCOLN'S CHAIR ENTERS INTO MARITAL DISPUTE
Springfield, Ill., July 12.—George B. Lloyd of Abraham Lincoln's old chair, made and presented to the latter by an ardent friend and hunter, a jury in the Circuit Court declares. They settled a dispute between Lloyd and his wife when the latter claimed the chair, fashioned out of elk horns, following a separation. Lincoln gave the prized article to his son, who gave it to Lloyd, and when the Lloyds agreed to disagree in the matter of marital happiness a wrangle over its possession developed. The foregoing court action followed.

LADY MACCABEES
A review of 20 charter members of the Woman's Benefit Association of the Maccabees has been successfully organized at McHenry, Ky., by Mrs. Lola F. Eastham, of Somerset, State Commander, assisted by Mrs. Eva L. Bennett, of Hartford.

Mrs. Eastham was honor guest of Hartford review No. 42 at their meeting on last Thursday and gave an interesting talk on the good of the order, to a large and enthusiastic bunch of members.

Mrs. Eastham is a woman whose efficiency as an organizer and worker, coupled with those sterling qualities of a model christian woman, places her in the very front rank as one of the order's most valued and trusted officials. We welcome her to our city at any time.

WILSON'S VETO HOLDS DAYLIGHT BILL LACKS 23 VOTERS OF PASSAGE OVER VETO.
Washington, July 14.—Repeal of the daylight savings law became a dead issue for the present, at least, by the failure of the house today to pass the agricultural bill over President Wilson's veto. The vote was 247 to 135, proponents of repeal mustering twenty-three votes less than the required two-thirds majority.

The agricultural bill will be passed with the repeal rider eliminated and it was said that no effort would be made to pass the repeal measure as a separate bill, as it undoubtedly would be vetoed by the president under the now defeated rider, the law would have been repealed on October 1.

Immediately after Speaker Gillett announced the result amid the applause of supporters of the daylight savings law, the bill was referred back to the agricultural committee, which will meet probably tomorrow to report the measure with the repeal rider eliminated.

Because of the house action the senate will not have the opportunity to attempt passage of the bill over the president's veto.

The house vote did not draw along political lines, the proponents of the repeal being those representing agricultural districts.

PYTHIANS VISITED BY GRAND LODGE OFFICERS
The Local Lodge, Knights of Pythias was visited by Grand Chancellor Commander, Jno. J. Howe, and Grand Keeper of Records and Seal, J. W. Carter, at its regular session, Tuesday night. Quite a large number were in attendance. Three candidates were proven in the rank of ensign. Officers elected were installed by the Grand Chancellor, being the first time Rough River Lodge has thus been honored. An enjoyable evening was pleasantly and profitably spent by those present.

DEATH AND DISASTER IN TORNADO'S WAKE
Valparaiso, Chile, July 15.—Eighty-seven persons are known to have been drowned, and the loss of life may have been much greater, in a hurricane which swept this port Saturday and Sunday.

Fourteen vessels of various sizes were sunk and about a hundred lighters and other small craft were destroyed. The property loss is estimated at $70,000,000.

Among the steamers lost were the Don Carlos, 1,114 net tonnage; Toro, 76 tons; the tug Gordillera, 107 tons; two old hulls; Lima, 2,390 tons; the Lontine and the Likata.

The German steamer Sals, which was washed ashore and pounded to pieces, lost ten of its crew.

Seven other vessels, including the steamer Tams, of 6,000 tons, were reported lost in dispatches received Saturday and yesterday.

COMMISSIONER WILEY'S FEDERAL ROAD REPORT
Rodman Wiley, commissioner of public roads, in his report on the proposed Howling Creek Owensboro Federal Highway designates the Pleasant Ridge route as first of importance, the Maxwell route as second and the Nickols route third or last. His estimate of cost was for the Pleasant Ridge route, in Ohio County, 11.2 miles $286,000; the Maxwell route, 12 miles, $268,600; the Nickols-Heflin route, 11.2 miles, $298,000 and from Hartford to Butler County line, 14.9 miles $245,000. If this estimate is anything like correct the road built, and surfaced with metal, 16 feet wide would cost approximately $531,000.

If we understand the matter, this means that the subscription heretofore made must be a failed.

DR. Z. H. SHULTS DEAD—DEATH SELF-INFLICTED
Dr. Z. H. Shults, prominent in the medical profession in both Davless and Ohio Counties, died at his home in Masonville, Monday morning at 10 o'clock, in his office, where he was found by his wife. The cause of his death was carbolic acid, self-administered.

When this country entered the late war Dr. Shults tendered his services and was accepted into the medical corps, with the rank of Captain, when discharged some three months ago his physical condition was somewhat impaired and while looking after a large practice his health became worse and finally resulted in a nervous breakdown and a severe state of melancholia, which accounts for his untimely end.

Dr. "Zeb" Shults, as his many friends here usually called him, was born and reared in Ohio county, and came from one of the largest and best known families in this section. He was very generally known and held in high esteem by all who knew him. Before he entered the medical profession he served this county in the capacity of Superintendent of Common Schools.

Descendant's remains were brought to the home of his father-in-law, Judge J. P. Sandefur, of this place, where short services were held, after which interment took place at noon Tuesday, in Oakwood. Dr. Shults is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Rachel Sandefur, and a host of other relatives.

STONX INDIAN CODE ON TELEPHONE FOOLED HUNS
Decatur, Ill., July 12.—There was one code Fritz never got into in France. That was the Stonx. Private John Leas, just home from France, tells of it.

"A good many German spies got over into the Allied line," said Leas, who was in charge of a communications battery "and there was some tapping of lines and listening in by German agents who understood English perfectly. We got around that in a clever way. We put Stonx Indians on the telephones to send and receive orders."

"Emp glump hoosha moo chunk" an Indian would repeat over the telephone, meaning bring up a battery of 75's.

"Og gog pom bring cachoo rukok would come the ready answer, which might mean they're starting; will be there in five minutes."

"I don't know how much of a technical war vocabulary those Stonx had, but Fritz never got wise to their lingo."

KENTUCKY IS GIVEN 388 ARMY TRUCKS FOR ROADS
Frankfort, Ky., July 12.—One hundred and fifty-five more army trucks are available for this state. Commissioner Rodman Wiley, of the Department of Public Roads will distribute the trucks among the various counties of the state. The additional trucks available will give Kentucky 388 army trucks for road work purposes.

We are authorized to have our Grand Jury, in aid help its pass a resolution in these days of heat and discomfort, but we trust that they KNOCK before coming in.

If this League of Nations don't keep the world out of war any better than Wilson kept the U. S. A. out of war, after his election, it won't amount to much. If adopted, we hope the league will do better.

There seems to be quite a bit of regretful surprise expressed in some domestic quarters that Senator Hatch served on the Senatorial commission to welcome the President on his peach-picking visit to the U. S.
Senate.

working, the Commissioners should be concerned in Ohio county.

STATEMENTS UNSUPPORTED

It is regrettable that a number of Kentucky newspapers in reporting the incident of the death of Dr. Z. H.
Shultz, at Masonville, last Monday, should have gotten their information in such a manner as to lead one to believe that Dr. Shultz took his own life as a result of worry over lack of practice and financial matters, when exactly the opposite was really the case. Dr. Shultz, as a matter of course, was not a wealthy man, as wealth goes these days, but he was the owner of a considerable amount of farm lands and possessed sufficient of this world's goods to keep him and his most estimable wife in comparatively ease during their expected lifetime, to say nothing of his very large and remunerative practice. Dr.
Shultz was afflicted with an ailment regarded as absolutely incurable, one almost always resulting in destruction of the patient's mental faculties, and of this fact no one was more fully aware, than Dr. Shultz. (We have no doubt the presence of this mental undermining at the time of his lamentable death.) We have read the note that the deceased Doctor left, addressed to his wife, and it was indeed most pathetic, and very tender toward Mrs. Shultz. He said he was with, expecting that he had taken the step, but he did not know what he was doing. He said he was going into her life the certain misery coming from the fact. In short for him, it is more than certain that all of the many papers publishing accounts of the death of Dr. Shultz were in error, or else there would have been no implication that it was due to financial worry.

width of the levee, due to the high weeds growing on either side of the road, and the front wheel of the car slipped over the embankment and the momentum of the car threw it over before it could be stopped. Fortunately a telephone pole happened to be in the path of the falling car, and on its first flip the car lodged against the pole, which held the weight of the car off of the occupants.

The party suffered a severe shakeup, otherwise they escaped, uninjured.
The windshield and the top of the car were torn away and the fender was badly smashed but the body was not damaged and they righted the car and continued on their journey.

ELLIS ICE COMPANY MAKES STATEMENT ON PRICES

I have heard some complaint about the quantity of ice that you have been getting. I informed my customers at the beginning of the season that I would sell ice at the same price as last season, eighty cents blocked out or $1.00 weighed out. I have kept my promise on my own manufacture, but as to car ice I can not weigh it out at one cent per pound. You are all well aware of the fact that I have gone to a very heavy expense since last season, in constructing a cold storage. I now have a storage capacity of 125 tons which means a little better than 6 car loads. I thought at the beginning of the season that I had plenty of ice to bridge me over without ordering any cars. Six car loads a season above the capacity of the plant here-to-for has supplied all demands. Knowing that I was not going to have enough ice in storage, after I had pulled all the ice from one storage room, I commenced to ordering cars the first of July. When I had at least 80 tons of ice of my own manufacture in storage, I have been carrying this 80 tons to bridge over the promised ice famine in the hot month of August. There was an ice famine last season in the month of August. We are sure to have a repetition this year if this hot weather continues, in fact there is almost a famine now. I can not get a car of ice short of Henderson or Evansville. The last car I got out of Henderson I had to place my order a week before hand. I have been ordering these cars purely to accommodate the people, and to avoid an ice famine in Hartford, if possible. I have lost money on every car I have ordered this season. Have received 4 cars this season and I know that the 4 cars lost me at least $200.00 and have received one car out of Evansville that cost me 70 cents per cwt., ($14.00 per ton) put in the cold storage, not making any estimate of the damage to my tank while placing this car in storage. This damage can only be estimated approximately, even by the best practical ice and cold storage men. It takes at least 3 hours to place a car of ice in storage. Ask any practical ice and cold storage man what the damage is to a 5 ton tank to keep the cold storage doors open, of a storage that will hold at least 100 tons. Then add this to 70 cent ice and see what a refrigerator car costs delivered out of Evansville not allowing for any shrinkage. Ice shrinks at least 20 per cent in a refrigerator car. In view of this fact how can you expect me to sell ice at a cent per pound? Ice will cost less weighed out of a refrigerator car than a box car. The shrinkage is not near so heavy. As I stated above I have 80 tons of my own ice in storage. I will sell this at 80 cents per 100 pounds blocked out or $1.00 weighed. I believe that I will need at least 2 or 3 more cars above capacity of plant. I will make this proposition to any responsible man: I will turn all the cars over to you that I will have to have above the capacity of my plant and will give him a bonus of $10.00 on a car to start with. Will furnish him hooks, picks and wagon free of charge and will furnish delivery boys and mule for just what they cost me, provided he will deliver ice at a cent a pound and take care of my wholesale trade at $9.00, seven blocks to the ton. I will also promise him that I will not sell a pound of ice from my plant as long as he has any. This proposition will make money over the basis at which I have been putting ice out. I offered a responsible man $25.00 to take the last car off my hands rather than put it out on the basis I have been putting my own ice.

Now, as to the price of my own ice, ice was cheaper last year and is now cheaper than ever before in Hartford. Ice was never retailed for less than 50 cents a hundred blocked, (not weighed.) I have been getting 80 cents blocked out. Prior to my management of the plant ice was sold at $1.00 per block of 300 pounds. I get $1.50 for the same size block. You see I have only advanced 30 cents on the hundred and 50 cents on the block of 300 pounds. I will sell any one a block of ice on my platform for $1.50. This is as cheap as you can get a block of ice anywhere. I will ask you these questions: "What was Owensboro getting at retail for ice prior to the war? What was Louisville, Chicago, or any of the large cities? They were getting 25 cents per hundred. They are all getting double that sum now, 50 cents. Chicago is even getting 60 cents. None of these plants are of less than 40 ton capacity. Aside from Owensboro I presume that they are about 100 ton plants. Some one will say, "Why can't you sell ice as cheap as Owensboro or these other cities?" It costs me at least 100 per cent more to produce a ton of ice on a 5-ton plant than it does in a 40 ton plant. I have not doubled prices, they have. Small plants can not compete with large plants to illustrate to you the difference between

We want to buy Cream, can pay you one-third more on the pound for Cream than you have been getting for butter and you get out of the hard work of churning. We have two receiving days in a week for Cream, every Tuesday and Friday, bring it either one of these days of each week. Some people don't understand how to handle Cream, they think it must be sweet before we will take it. Forget that, it does not hurt it one bit to sour. Call our place of business over 'phone or in person and our manager will explain to you how you can make money with less work.

a small plant and a large one. "Ballard & Ballard and Washburn Crosby Milling Companies, of Louisville, Ky., each make in the neighborhood of 3000 barrels of flour per day. When they are selling flour at 25 cents net profit per bbl., the 50 bbl will lose money selling flour at the same price, providing they pay the same for the wheat.

I make the above explanation that you may be more familiar with the ice situation and that you also may know that I have made a sacrifice, financially, in order to keep the people in ice. I would have realized a great deal more if I had have exhausted my supply before I ordered a single car. But I thought best to order ice while I could get it. I doubt very much whether I can buy any ice in August. I hoped to have enough of my own ice to supply the demand in Hartford and vicinity but I think now that I will not. I trust that this explanation may convince you that I have done a better part by my customers than you really expected of me.

If I am compelled to order any more cars and weigh ice to customers I will have to charge more money. I can't tell just now what the price will be, as the price of ice is advancing everywhere. Not only is ice advancing but freight rates are almost prohibitory. Ask your H. R. Agent what the rate is on a refrigerator car from Evansville or Henderson to Hartford. If you will carefully weigh the above statements, all of which are true, I feel certain that you will agree that I have been, and am now, treating you fair and right.

We Are Going To Protect The Farmer

Harness and buggies have advanced within the past thirty days but on account of having orders placed before the advance went on we will protect you as long as this supply lasts. Better come in and get what you want NOW. Are your cows paying you a profit? You are losing money every day you handle milk the old way. Ask any DeLaval separator user then call us and let us put one in your home for trial and if it does not make you money we remove it without any cost to you and remember you are the judge. We have a few Deering mowers left. Call us and have one held for you so that when you get ready to cut, the mower will be here.

To Buy At Loom-End Prices, You Must PAY CASH For Your Purchases. Merchandise Charged, Will Be At Regular Prices.

Again we summon you to our semi-annual bargain feast. According to merchandise conditions, and the big advances already recorded on all kinds and grades of merchandise, the money saving possibilities on merchandise at to-day's regular prices, can easily be calculated. The manufacturer's prices are from 20 to 50 per cent higher than they were sixty days ago.

PEACE AND LEAGUE OF NATIONS TERMS

have been signed by Germany and practically all the leading nations of the world. The soldiers of all warring nations must turn from war to the peaceful pursuits of life. These millions of soldiers must have clothes, civilian clothes and working clothes. The millions of the civilian population of France, England, Russia, Italy, Belgium, South America, Germany, and all other countries must be clothed and fed. The supply of all these countries is very limited, and many of the warring nations have practically nothing. Every one of them is looking to the United States for the things they haven't. Many of them have buyers in this country, with millions of dollars to spend for our merchandise, and the rest will be here as soon as they can establish satisfactory credit in this country. All of these buyers scrambling for merchandise and no surplus stock on hand, you can readily see that prices are bound to go skyward on everything that's to wear. One or two years of very high prices seems evident.

The savings on our merchandise at to-day's regular prices, will be enormous. In the face of all this, we have assembled thousands of yards of Loom-End Calicoes, Percals, Chevies, Gingham, Longcloth, White Goods, Fancy Skirtings, Silks, Cretons and every odd thing and short length from every department, making the price much below the cost of production. Buy for your present and future needs. You will make money if you buy things for next summer.

Remember the date. Be on hand the first day, and every day thereafter. Carefully consider everything with red tickets on it. Buy what you can use. We won't have enough to give everybody as much as they want.

E.P. BARRETT & BROS.

BEAVER DAM,

KENTUCKY.

TWO OUT OF THREE FOR HEAVY DAM

Saturday, July 12 Drakesboro visited Heaver Dam with a clean and fast an aggregation of ball players as has been to our town. However, Drakesboro had to do 9 innings of real labor to carry the game home. Heaver Dam's fielding was of pretty poor class for Monroe pitched one of his best games and only allowed the visitors 7 hits while Drakesboro was touched for 11 hits.

Sunday, Heaver Dam journeyed forth to the fields of Millwood and beat everything there, beat each other to the dining table, eating, and playing ball.

Everybody likes a good meal but Halley Monroe likes his apple preserves the best and Glendon Stevens carried three pulley bones home with him. Hayward Pirtle caught ice cream like it was a 1 to nothing game while Clisel picked chicken bones like he might have been picking grounders on first. Reed, as usual, showed some class when regular home-made cake made its appearance, also disappearance there; Noble Taylor alias Dave Roger cleaned his plate as well as the bases and as for the rest of the lunch that went along, well, I am afraid they will never be able to look human beings in the face again when food is spoken of.

All of this happened at Millwood and the game was played in the evening, our boys put it over to the tune of 15 to 11.

Now comes the last but by no means the least one of the three games. We journeyed to Grayson on No. 22, and stacked up against a picked team from most all over the country. A pitcher from Brownsville, a catcher from Coella also a shortstop, second and third baseman from Millwood, an outfielder from Leitchfield, and two home boys.

Well, if we had been gamblers of money we would have left lots of them wondering where breakfast was coming from for we walked their frame for the old ball game to the tune of 5 to 4 and I can truthfully say that I have never seen 18 men work any harder for any big game.

As to pitching, it was a pitchers battle from the start and our Glendon walked in the box and had that picked team swinging at the air like they were a bunch of toys wound up. Stevens bunched two hits and struck out 13 men on the thirteenth day of the month while his opponent allowed five hits and struck out 5 men.

Everybody played air tight ball and several of the boys told me that some one around there paid the expenses of four of our boys, seems like Grayson liked our bunch pretty well, doesn't it?

The Joy Of Living.

To enjoy life we must have good health. No one can reasonably hope to get much real pleasure out of life when his bowels are clogged a good share of the time and the poisons that should be expelled are absorbed into the system, producing headache and indigestion. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets will move the bowels, strengthen the digestion and give you a chance to realize the real joy of living. Try it.

To the Friends and Relatives of Jesse W. Crowe.

Dear Friends: It is with deepest sympathy that I wish to tell you of the ceremony which took place on the 30th of May, in the little cemetery near Issur-Tille, France, where Jesse W. Crowe is buried with his comrades, in the A. E. F.

The services were attended by soldiers of Camp Williams and the women workers of the camp. "Nearer My God To Thee" and "America" were sung. The friends and relatives of the deceased were present and then taps sounded.

The most impressive feature of the occasion was the laying of flowers on the grave of a soldier who had given his life for his country. This was done by the women of the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A. and the Jewish Welfare Board.

The flowers had been given by the French people, who had liberally stripped their little gardens in appreciation of what these boys had done in France.

I will always consider it one of the greatest privileges of my life to have been present at this Memorable Reconciliation Day Celebration, and to have been the representative of the nearest relative of Jesse W. Crowe, whose grave lies on the field of honor, in France.

Most Sincerely,
RUTH ADA KIMBALL,
Rep. American Red Cross.

ARMY IS PROUD OF ITS RESERVE CORPS

Washington, July 12.—Army officers point to the new officers' reserve corps as one of the big assets obtained from the war.

The new corps now numbers more than 15,000 members, sufficient on the basis of one officer to twenty men to furnish the commissioned personnel for an army of 900,000. Officers in the higher grades include 68 colonels, 196 lieutenant colonels and 2,298 majors.

There are on file 24,817 applications for appointment as officers in the regular army.

SURGEONS agree that in cases of cuts, burns, bruises and wounds, the first treatment is most important.

When an effective antiseptic is applied promptly, there is no danger of infection and the wound begins to heal at once. For use on man or beast, Borozone is the ideal antiseptic and healing agent. Buy it now and be ready for an emergency. Price 25c, 50c, $1.00 and $1.50. Sold by Ohio County Drug Co.

SOLDIER RECOVERS SPEECH RESULT OF SUDDEN PINCH

London, June 25.—A. E. Pearson, of Stratford, was struck dumb in action at Vimy Ridge in March, 1918.

At a Liverpool hospital he underwent special treatment, but it was of no avail, and for fourteen months he had remained speechless.

A few days ago his mother by chance pinched him very hard. In the most natural way he cried out: "Oh don't!"

From that time his speech has come back to him, altho at present talking causes him some little pain.

When you feel lazy, out of sorts and yawn a good deal in the daytime you can charge it to a torpid liver which has allowed the system to get full of impurities. HERBINE cures all disorders produced by an inactive liver. It strengthens that organ, cleanses the bowels and puts the system in good healthy condition. Price 50c. Sold by Ohio County Drug Company.

SHORT SKIRTS ARE BAD FOR BOTH MORALS AND HEALTH

Aberdeen, Washington, July 12.—"Educate women to wear longer dresses" is the purpose of a resolution passed here by the Gray's Harbor W. C. T. U. in annual convention. Present styles lower the standard of morals and are not conducive to health, is the attitude adopted by those in session.

Plans for the campaign of education were formulated and the workers are urging women to dress "more reasonably."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is calarrh. Calarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Calarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Calarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. MAINE "BABIES" CONTAIN TWENTY SMALL BOTTLES

Portland, Me., July 12.—Bottles of the bone-dry law have adopted a new device with which to smuggle liquor into this state. Huge dolls, sold as are given as prizes to county fairs and shore resorts and can be taken to represent sleeping infants, have been pressed into service.

Two of them, which it is estimated will hold twenty small bottles of whisky each, were brought to this city by two men, one attired as a woman and the other posing as the "husband," and not long after their arrival the liquor was being sold to men on the streets.

CALLED HER FAMILY TO HER BEDSIDE

Six Years Ago, Thinking She Might Die, Says Texas Lady, But Now She Is a Well, Strong Woman and Praises Cardui For Her Recovery.

Royce City, Tex.—Mrs. Mary Kilman, of this place, says: "After the birth of my little girl... my side commenced to hurt me. I had to go back to bed. We called the doctor. He treated me... but I got no better. I got worse and worse until the misery was unbearable... I was in bed for three months and suffered such agony that I was just drawn up in a knot... I told my husband if he would get me a bottle of Cardui I would try it... I commenced taking it, however, that evening I called my family about me... for I knew I could not last many days unless I had a change for the better. That was six years ago and I am still here and am a well, strong woman, and I owe my life to Cardui. I had only taken half the bottle when I began to feel better. The misery in my side got less... I continued right on taking the Cardui until I had taken three bottles and I did not need any more for I was well and never felt better in my life... I have never had any trouble from that day to this."

Do you suffer from headache, backache, pains in sides, or other discomforts, each month? Or do you feel weak, nervous and fagged-out? If so, give Cardui, the woman's tonic, a trial.

A FEW OF THE OLD BLUE LAWS
It is rather interesting just at this time to look at some of the prohibitory laws that were in force in this country during the colonial days. The people of New Haven prior to their incorporation with the Saybrook and Hartford colonies, were subject to the following:

"No Quaker or discenter from the established worship of the dominion shall be allowed to give vote for the election of magistrates, or any officer."

"No food or lodging shall be afforded to a Quaker or other heretic."

"No one shall run on the sabbath day, or walk in his garden, or elsewhere, except reverently to and from meeting."

"No one shall travel, cook victuals, make bees, sweep house, cut hair or shave on the sabbath day."

"No woman shall kiss her child on the sabbath day or fasting day. The sabbath shall begin at sunset on Saturday."

"Wages or brings cards or dice into this dominion shall be fined for."

"Whoever wears clothes trimmed with gold, silver or bone lace above two inches by the yard shall be presented by the grand jurors, and the selectmen shall tax the offender."

"No one shall read common prayer, keep Christmas or saint days, make minced pies, dance, play cards, or play on any instrument of music, except the drum and Jew's harp."

"Married persons must live together, or be imprisoned. Every male shall have his hair cut round according to his cap."

CARBON REMOVERS.

The market at the present time is flooded with auxiliary air and gas-ture injecting devices, some of which are good and some bad. The moisture injecting devices will in most cases prevent the formation of carbon on the cylinder walls, but they are not likely to remove carbon already formed, altho this claim is made for them. The air devices are practically useless, unless the owner is absolutely certain that the air range of his carburetor is insufficient. If the adjustment already on the carburetor is capable of supplying more air, an auxiliary air device is a waste of money.

TAPPY.

Rev. H. C. Ford preached at Christian church Sunday and Sunday night.

Several of the teachers attended the Institute at Hartford last week.

Messrs. J. E. and Ira D. Funk have each purchased Ford touring cars.

Miss Inez Kirk visited her sister, Mrs. Lewis Massie, at Andersonville, Saturday.

Mrs. Ira Moseley, who has been ill for several months is worse at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Lee Jolley were here Sunday.

QUICK WIT SAVES CASH.

St. Louis, Mo., July 12.—Two men in army uniform and carrying revolvers entered the restaurant of Charles Anderson here. While one of the men "covered" Anderson and Edwin Estes, a customer, the other started for the cash register. Anderson called out:

"Wait a minute, mister; here's some money. Go get something to eat."

The man halted a moment, then accepted the money and fled with the other rubber cloth behind.

LIVES 38 DAYS MINUS FOOD.

Henryville, Ind., July 12.—Richard Elrod, 78, lived thirty-eight days without partaking of nourishment before his death here recently. He was stricken with paralysis and was unable to eat.

Quincy Mass., July 12.—Prohibition

tion 504 created a problem for ship homeing officials of the Fore River and the Spaulding shipyard. Thirty-five vessels are under construction or soon to be started on, at these works and the "christening fluid" is limited to twelve half-pint bottles of champagne.

Ten submarines and eight merchant ships will soon be ready for christening at the Fore River. The Spaulding works has contracts for seventeen more destroyers.

"It may be necessary to use applicator," said an official.

WILL RAISE SUNKEN
GREEN RIVER PACKET
Evansville, Ind., July 12.—Work will start at once to raise the steam-er Evansville, a Green River packet, which was sunk yesterday in three: River at Aberdeen, Ky. A barge will be built around the hole that was knocked in the stern of the boat and the vessel will be pumped out. The damage to the boat will not be serious. It is expected that another boat will be chartered to take the place of the Evansville temporarily in the Evansville and Howling Green, Ky., trade.

RELIEVE DEMOCRATS WILL YIELD TO G. O. P.
Washington, July 14.—The belief that Democratic senators will yield to the Republicans in the League of Nations fight and will accept certain reservations on the entire treaty from defeat was considerably strengthened today. It became known that Senator Swanson, of Virginia, held a three-hour conference with Senator Knox on the subject. It is believed Senator Swanson was seeking to discover a basis upon which the Democrats and Republicans might come together.

BUTTERMILK? WET!

Westerfield, N. J., July 12.—Buttermilk is to be put on the skids if a strict enforcement of the prohibition law is carried out, according to Prof. L. B. Allen, of the State Normal School, for it seldom shows less than 1 per cent of alcohol content and rapidly gains more through fermentation.

WAYS TO SAVE GASOLINE.

Do not allow the engine to run like except when absolutely necessary. Run car on a clean mixture.

Prevent leaks in gasoline line and shut off gasoline tank whenever possible.

Keep motor free of carbon. A carbonized motor is a large consumer of fuel.

Change gears more frequently in order to run engine at high, economical and efficient speed.

Keep moving parts well lubricated. Use kerosene for cleaning instead of gasoline.

Do not drive at excessive speed. Power consumption increases at a faster rate than speed. Every car has a definite speed at which it operates well on a maximum fuel economy.—Farm Life.

QUITE A COINCIDENCE.

"Rawley Jones? Why, that's my husband's pen name," said the lady of the house.

"Ain't it funny," marveled the cook, "my husband has one too. I'm in the pen they call him 'Glycerin' George."

Baltimore, Md.—"Nearly four years I suffered from organic troubles, nervousness and headaches and every month would have to stay in bed most of the time. FARM DEPARTMENT.

A Man's Prayer.

The following taken from a recent issue of Hoard's Dairyman should be read, not once, but several times:

"Teach me that 60 minutes make an hour, 16 ounces one pound, and 100 cents one dollar. Help me so to live that I can lie down at night with a clear conscience, without a gun under my pillow and unharmed by the faces of those to whom I have brought pain. Grant that I may earn my meal ticket on the square, and that in earning it I may do unto others as I would have them do unto me. Deafen me to the jangle of tainted money and to the rustle of unholy skirts. Blind me to the faults of other fellows, but reveal to me my own. Guide me so that whenever I look into the faces of my friends I will have nothing to conceal. Keep me young enough to laugh with little children, and sympathetic enough to be considerate of old age. And when comes the day of darkened shades and the smell of flowers, the tread of soft footsteps and the crunching of wheels in the yard, make the ceremony short and the epitaph simple. 'Here lies a man.'"

Will Take Out Stain

When cleaning your white shoes put a few drops of ammonia into the water in which you moisten the sponge. It will more effectively cleanse the shoes and will readily take out the stains.

Method Removes Stains

To remove stains from the dining table try alcohol. Saturate a soft cloth with the alcohol and rub the stain, then polish with some good furniture polish.

Removes Grease Stains

If you can not get the grease stain out of a wooden garment try powdered French chalk. Leave it on a few hours then shake it out well.

Removing Scratch Marks

To remove scratch marks from white goods rub with the cut edges of an onion, then lay in the sun for a time.

Potatoes For Washing

Grate two potatoes into a basin of warm water and wash the delicate handkerchiefs, washcloths, ribbons, etc., in this. It gives better results than soap.

Test Oven Heat

Test the oven with a piece of white paper. If the paper turns a light brown when you place it in the oven, the oven is just right for pastry. If it turns a dark yellow color you are safe in baking a cake.

Handy Rust Remover

Keep a small paint brush—one of the 10-cent variety will do—handy near the range. It will be excellent for removing the rust, etc., from the various parts of the range and you can always have a clean stove that will burn well.

Keeping Flowers Fresh

Flowers will keep fresh much longer if a pinch of soda is added to the water in which they are placed.

Can The Sucker

Dear County Agent:—This is the opening gun in the state-wide campaign to can the sucker hen. You will hear other reports from time to time.

Since we are unable to obtain the additional help which we had hoped for, the time that can be given to each county is necessarily shortened. We hope to make up for this by more intensive work and will expect to be kept busy every minute we are with you.

Mr. A. S. Chapin will be in your county 3 days. He will arrive in Beaver Dam at 6:09 a. m., Oct. 2 and leave Beaver Dam at 3:04 p. m., Oct. 4th. The number of flocks that can be visited may be estimated on this basis. About four flocks of 50 birds each for a half day where not over fifteen minutes are spent in getting from one to the other. Only one demonstration should as a rule be held in each community and that one be well advertised so that all the local poultry raisers will be benefited. Preference should be given those flocks which will supply eggs for standardization work next season and to other pure bred flocks. But this does not mean that we will not work with mixed flocks.

We want to emphasize the absolute necessity of having the flocks penned the night before the demonstration. It will otherwise be impossible to catch them.

Trusting that we may have the same splendid interest and cooperation in the work that we had last fall, and in the standardization work the past spring, we are

Yours for better poultry.

Add Alum To Starch

Add an ounce of alum to the rinsing water or to the starch. It will do considerable to make muslin and cotton garments non-inflammable. This might be especially advantageous in the children's clothes.

Watch The Potatoes

An extremely dangerous potato disease known as the potato wart, has made its appearance in Pennsylvania. The disease was undoubtedly imported from Europe and is moving westward into the country. Farmers and gardeners are warned by the United States and State departments of Agriculture to be on the lookout for diseased potatoes. Diseased potatoes show warts that are at first small, light brown, spongy outgrowths near the eyes. These increase in size quite rapidly, turn darker in color and may become as large as the potato itself, causing the whole tuber to become soft, black and poney. This disease is one of the most serious which affect the potato and while it has not been found in Kentucky to date, it may appear in this section of the State where eastern potatoes have been shipped in for seed.

The Federal Horticulture Board and the Plant Disease Survey have placed Mr. R. C. Pauliweiser in Kentucky to carry on an educational campaign and survey in an effort to inform the growers of this dangerous disease and to locate it if it has already made its appearance in Kentucky. If any diseased potatoes are found, the grower should learn from the groceryman or seedman whether eastern table or seed potatoes have been sold on the local market in the past few years. The moment any grower or gardener thinks he has found a potato with potato wart disease, he should notify Mr. Pauliweiser, at his office at the Experiment Station at Lexington.

Soldiers See Light

Many of our boys are coming back from over the Atlantic with a desire to improve things on the farm. The clipping given below was taken from a farm magazine which came to the county agent's desk quite recently:

"At the Farm School now in operation at Allerey, France, for the soldiers of the A. E. F., a class in farm equipment was listening to discussions of farm conveniences. The building of a septic tank for the homestead made a deep impression on the men. 'When I go home, said one of them, 'I'm going to do my best to get dad to build one. I'll do it myself if he won't. And then I'm going to see that we get some kind of a water system in the house to save steps for my mother and sisters. It's time that they were getting something to make their work easier.'"

"Another soldier remarked: 'I don't think we've got a right to ask a girl to marry us and live and work on the farm with us if we don't fix up our farmhouses better than farmers have been doing.'"

POTATO WART.

Lexington, Ky.,

June 26, 1919.

It has been brought to my attention within the last few days by the United States Department of Agriculture that the recently discovered potato disease, POTATO WART, introduced into Pennsylvania from abroad, is possibly to be found in other sections of the country.

Every state is being asked to organize a FIELD TO FIELD OR GAR-

REN TO GARDEN search and in order to make the field search effective and complete we need the help and cooperation of every intelligent grower of potatoes. If all suspicious cases are promptly reported and specimens sent to your County Agent or to the Plant Pathologist at your Experiment Station, we shall very soon have the necessary information. MABEL L. ROE, Collaborator.

Buy Seed Early

Each year for the past several years there has been an acute shortage of clover seed in this county. One of the reasons for this is that we have been unable to import any seed; but the chief reason is that the production of clover seed has declined rapidly in the United States. This in turn is due to the fact that the acreage of clover grown in some of the chief seed producing states like Ohio, Indiana and Michigan is much smaller than formerly.

Clover seed at no time has been cheap, but an examination of market prices for the past few years shows that the fall price has been several dollars less in every case than the late winter and early spring price. Last year, for example, clover seed could be bought in the fall for about $18.00 per bushel. In the spring the price was $30.00 and good seed was difficult to get even at this price. There was simply not enough seed to go around. That there will be a similar shortage of seed next year is practically certain. In fact some authorities predict the most serious shortage yet experienced. This opinion is borne out by the high price of seed for future delivery on the Toledo market. It is not at all unlikely that good clover seed will sell for $35.00 or $40.00 per bushel next year.

There is a good opportunity of saving many dollars and what is even more important, getting the choicest seed the market affords, by buying just as soon as the next crop of seed comes in the market. While the shortage of alfalfa seed has not been so marked as with clover, yet the supply of high-grade seed has not been large and since the quality of the seed is such an important point in growing alfalfa, no mistake can be made by buying early.

Keep Growing

A started pig or calf never can make a fine animal. A field of corn that is held in check by bad weather, never grows as it should later in the season. Every farmer realized that these are facts because he observes them from season to season.

Minds should be kept growing all the time if they are to be useful breadwinners. The mind that gets into a rut in thinking and stays there never can grow into a big strong thinking machine. Frequent rides over new territory in an automobile, the reading of farm papers and an occasional trip to farmers meetings at the College of Agriculture or the Experiment Station, will keep the farmer's mind out of the rut.

Of course, all of this is written with the feeling that men's minds are keener and more alive today than ever before in the history of the world. It is written with the knowledge that everybody is moving rapidly along in this age of change and invention. It is written at a time when twenty short years ago nobody had a slio, nobody sprayed an orchard, nobody owned a "Tin Lizzie," nobody had a photograph and nobody swatted the fly. Nevertheless, the man who makes a success either in business or in farming is the one who keeps his mind growing all the time.

FOR SALE AC

In every county where there is a County Agent, a list of articles and live stock both for sale and wanted to buy, is made up each month.

I get such a list each month, and also make up a similar one for this county. If you want to buy or sell let me know, my list will be where you can see it at any time; there is no charge, you are not out a penny—your advertisement or want will go all over the state to every county in which there is an agent.

Leave a list in my office in the Court House if you don't see me or mail it to me, or leave it with the bank or county clerk.

There is less chance of making a mistake if you write it down. Don't forget to put your name, address, R. F. D. and telephone if you have one; somebody might be in a hurry to pay you some money, and if your name wasn't there I might not know how to find you.

ORDER FOR 20 CENT ROAD TAX ELECTION

State Of Kentucky, Ohio
County Fiscal Court
June 26th, 1919

It appearing that Ohio county has not sufficient amount of money for road purposes and that the present system of road working by road hands is inefficient and unsatisfactory for the working and up keep of the roads of Ohio county, and having been called upon by the State Commissioner of public roads of Kentucky as well as by a large number of citizens of Ohio county to petition for a better and more efficient system of the working and up keep of the county roads of Ohio county, and being desirous of meeting the demand in the best and most efficient way, and for that purpose, a special election upon the question of a 20c road tax may be held at a primary election at but very short notice, in addition to the very short notice required, and made known to the public, a primary election shall be held on the 26th day of June, 1919, at the Court House in Hartford, Kentucky, for the purpose of voting a tax of 20c on all property within the county for the purpose of road purposes for a period of five years, and no amount of money in excess of the amount that can be levied by the levy in that year shall be expended in that year, and all indebtedness created in one year for such road and bridge purposes shall be paid out of the fund raised in that year. Said tax to be an ad valorem tax to be levied each year and collected by the sheriff at the same time and in the same manner and by the same process that he collects other taxes and for the collection of the tax levied hereunder the sheriff shall be entitled to and allowed a commission of 1 per cent of the amount so collected and no more, as provided in section 1207-14 of Kentucky Statutes, Vol. 3.

The question of voting said tax of 20c ad valorem on the hundred dollars worth of property subject by law to local taxation, shall be submitted to the voters in the following language and no otherwise:

"Are you for a property tax of twenty cents on each one hundred dollars worth of property in the county, to be levied each year for five years, for the purpose of improving or constructing, altering or both, the roads of Ohio county, and being desirous of meeting the demand in the best and most efficient way, and for that purpose, a special election upon the question of a 20c road tax may be held at a primary election at but very short notice, in addition to the very short notice required, and made known to the public, a primary election shall be held on the 26th day of June, 1919, at the Court House in Hartford, Kentucky, for the purpose of voting a tax of 20c on all property within the county for the purpose of road purposes for a period of five years, and no amount of money in excess of the amount that can be levied by the levy in that year shall be expended in that year, and all indebtedness created in one year for such road and bridge purposes shall be paid out of the fund raised in that year. Said tax to be an ad valorem tax to be levied each year and collected by the sheriff at the same time and in the elections. It is resolved and so ordered that the money derived from the tax so levied and collected shall be used, expended and applied in each and several of the respective magisterial districts of the county where said taxes are so levied and collected, so that each of said districts shall receive all and in full the taxes so levied and collected therein. Persons carefully selected for their competency and put under bond for the fair and faithful performance of their duties will be employed in each district to see that the work therein, and said taxes, will be for the exclusive working and upkeep of the public roads and the bridges and culverts thereon in all respective districts, and shall be so apportioned, used, and applied to the roads of each district as to be in accordance with the law and the system now in existence to a new and working said roads by the use of proper and improved, adequate and sufficient road machinery, by teams, gangs, scrapers, ditchers, drag, graders, drills, and other road appliances, adaptable and suitable for both hills and lowlands, so that each and all sections of road whether hill or lowland shall have the same necessary and suitable for its proper upkeep and convenient use to the several communities affected and for the general traveling public. For the purchase of such machinery, implements and tools shall be made from the funds derived from the 20c road tax, but exclusively from the funds derived from taxes regularly levied and collected each year as already provided by law, and the men now subject to duties as road hands throughout the county shall be released from such duty.

The amount of said tax shall not exceed the said rate of 20c on the hundred dollars as aforesaid, nor be levied or collected for a longer period than five years. As it is not within our power to levy or have collected any poll tax additional to that already levied and collected, nor to submit the question of voting an additional poll tax, hence the election ordered is for the purpose of levying and collecting a tax on property only. Ayes and Nays being called for resulted as follows: H. P. Rice, Yes; Q. B. Brown, Yes; W. S. Dean, Yes; W. C. Daugherty, Yes; H. C. Rhoads, Yes; G. W. Rowe, No; Sam L. Stevens, Absent; Ed Shown, Yes. Whereupon the motion was declared carried and so ordered.
